

CONTENTS

	Page
Foreword
Joe R. Hoffer	3
Group Work's Commitment to Preparation of the Individual Toward Assuming Social Responsibilities—William H. Brueckner	7
The Youth and Government Project—A Welfare Council Experience—Lucy P. Carner	12
What Does the Adolescent See as His Problems in the Current Social Scene?—Leta H. Galpin	17
The Role and Responsibility of Public Agencies in Building a Total Community Recreation Program—Donald B. Dyer	25
The Role and Responsibility of Voluntary Agencies in Building a Total Community Recreation Program—Hollis Vick	28
Integration of Social Work Concepts into Camping Practice—Olive Crocker	33
The Development of an Integrated Case Work—Group Work Program—Marion B. Sloan and Helen S. Pinkus	45
Some Contributions of Therapeutic Group Working in a Medical Setting —Constance Impallaria	54
Making a Beginning in Research—A Public Agency's Experience—Lillie H. Nairne	63
Difficulties in Determining Social Work Effectiveness—Helen Leland Witmer	68
Effective Development in International Social Welfare Programs to Improve the Conditions of Living—James T. Nicholson	73
What are Profitable Imports for the United States—Florence Brugger	80
Agency Responsibility for Staff Development—Alice L. Taylor	91
Public Assistance Employees: What Do We Pay Them; What Do They Bring to Their Jobs—Dorothy Bucklin West	101
The Importance of Staff Team-Work in a Training School—Maurice A. Harmon	109
The Role of the Community Organization Practitioner—Edward D. Lynde	118
The Relation of Health and Welfare Planning to City Planning—Dennis O'Harrow	129